To Whom it Concerns;

This is a letter of recommendation for Heather Goines, of Cheyenne Valley Labradoodles. I have found her to be an exceptional breeder with great concern for her dogs and puppies health and well-being. She has demonstrated upmost ethics and is always searching for ways to improve the quality and care of her kennel. In the time that I have known her, and cared for her animals, she has spared no expense in the care for her animals. I am aware that she tests her breeding dogs for all genetic conditions and disease. I have been to her ranch, and have found her dogs and puppies in excellent health and well cared for. Her facilities are clean, and the puppies are raised in an ideal environment for their healthy development. I would highly recommend Cheyenne Valley Kennels as a breeder of the highest quality.

Sincerely,
